

Key Concept:

The Holy Spirit is not just some impersonal force, but is described in scripture in personal terms with emotions, a will, intellect, speech and other qualities of personality.

“Take 5” Teaching

John 16:7,8 – Personal _____ are used. Rom. 15:30 – He _____.

Rom. 8:27 – He has a _____. Acts 13:2 – He _____ commands.

1 Cor. 12:11 – He has a _____. Acts 5:3 – He can be _____ to.

Eph. 4:30 – He has _____. Acts 7:51 – He can be _____.

Scripture Memory Challenge: Ephesians 4:30

And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.

Additional Study:

- 2 Corinthians 5:5
- I John 3:24
- I John 4:13
- Galatians 4:6,7

Lesson Notes and Summary: How has this study impacted you?

Think About It:

“The Holy Spirit is no sceptic, and the things He has written in our hearts are not doubts or opinions, but assertions - surer and more certain than sense and life itself.” Martin Luther